

Title I Parental Involvement

I. Federal Requirements

The Superintendent or designee shall ensure that the district's Title I Parental Involvement policy, plan and programs comply with the requirements of federal law.

- A. The district will take the following actions to involve parents in the joint development of its district wide parental involvement plan:
 1. An annual meeting of parents of participating Title I students shall be held to explain the goals and purposes of the Title I program. We will hold the meeting prior to the end of the first semester at Woodland Middle School. We will hold the meeting at 8:15 am and invite all parents. The Title Coordinator will plan the meeting.
 2. Parents will be given the opportunity to participate in the development, operation and evaluation of the program. Parents will be invited to the meeting and participate in carousel activity that provides the feedback for the development and evaluation of the program. They will be provided information about the following: The parent involvement policy, parent/school to home communication, intervention/extension model, curriculum/resources, technology options, assessment, and given the opportunity to provide feedback and direction for the school.
 3. Parents will be encouraged to participate in planning activities, to offer suggestions, and to ask questions regarding policies and programs. We use surveys, personal connections during lunch and lockers and conferences. It is the school priority to connect with families on an ongoing basis.
- B. The district will take the following actions to involve parents in the process of school review and improvement:
 1. Parents will be given the opportunity to review the School Improvement Plan. Parents will be a part of the School Improvement Plan process. They will meet the planning team while creating the document. This happens during the first semester of school and presented to the school board and the public during the second semester. It is a living document. There is a lot of prioritizing within the process that allows parents to be an important part of the planning.
 2. Parents will be encouraged to participate in the building self-review. The School Improvement Plan will be available for parents to view during conferences at the parent connection table.
- C. The district will provide the following coordination, technical assistance, and other support to assist Title I schools in planning and implementing effective parental involvement activities:
 1. Identify barriers to greater participation by parents in parental involvement activities;
 2. Use findings of the evaluation to design strategies for more effective parental involvement; and
 3. Revise, when necessary, the district and school parental involvement policies.
- D. The district will coordinate and integrate parental involvement strategies with similar strategies under the following other programs:
 - Head Start;
 - Woodland Community Center Preschool;
 - Learning Assistance Program;

- Special Education; and
- State-operated preschool programs.

The district ~~will~~ shall facilitate removing barriers to parental involvement by activities such as: multiple programs by:

1. Conducting joint parent meetings with other programs;
2. Holding meetings at various times of the day and evening;
3. Arranging for in-home conferences;
4. ~~Using~~ Title I funds may be used ~~funding~~ to facilitate parent attendance at meetings by payment of transportation and child care costs.
