
RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES

Each year, the superintendent shall will develop and make available to all students, their parents and staff, handbooks pertaining to student rights, conduct, corrective actions and punishmentdiscipline. Such statements shall will be developed with the participation of parents and the community. The school principal and staff shall will confer at least annually to develop and/or review student conduct standards and the uniform enforcement of those standards as related to the established student handbooks. They shall will also confer annually to establish criteria for determining when certificated employees must complete classes to improve classroom management skills.

- All students who attend the district's schools shall will comply with the written policies, rules and regulations of the schools, shall will pursue the required course of studies, and shall will submit to the authority of staff of the schools, subject to such corrective action or punishmentdiscipline as the school officials shall will determine.
