Declaration of Intent to Provide Home-Based Instruction

A parent who intends to cause his/her child or children to receive home-based instruction in lieu of attendance or enrollment in a public school, approved private school, or an extension program of an approved private school must file an annual declaration of intent to do so in the format prescribed below:

I do hereby declare that I am the parent, guardian, or legal custodian of the child(ren) listed below; that said child(ren) is(are) between the ages of 8 and 18 and as such are subject to the requirements found in chapter 28A.225 RCW Compulsory Attendance; I intend to cause said child(ren) to receive home-based instruction as specified in RCW 28A.225.010(4); and if a certificated person will be supervising the instruction, I have indicated this by checking the appropriate space.

If your child re-enrolls into high school these are the guidelines:

1. To gain credit for a course of study, a student will provide the following:
 - a. A journal that reflects the actual work completed during a home-study course of study;
 - b. Exhibits of any specific projects completed (e.g., themes, research papers, art and/or shop projects); or
 - c. Any such other performance-based exhibits of specific course-related accomplishments.
2. To gain credit for a course of study, a student must demonstrate proficiency at a minimum of 80% of the objectives of the course. Such testing will be available as an ancillary service of the district if it is regularly available to all students. If not, the parent may engage district-approved personnel to conduct such an assessment at a cost determined by such personnel.
3. Credit is granted for the following approved schools:
 - a. Community colleges, vocational-technical institutes, four-year colleges and universities, and approved private schools in the state of Washington; and
 - b. Other schools or institutions that are approved by the district after evaluation for a particular course offering.

Child(ren)'s Name(s) Birth Date

() The home-based instruction will be supervised by a person certificated in Washington State pursuant to chapter 28A.410 RCW.
